COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs James Million and Gloria Million, for this Complaint against Defendants who alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. This action arises out of Defendants' actionable conduct and omission of corrective action in connection with the personal injuries of the Plaintiffs.

PARTIES

1. The plaintiff, James Million (hereinafter referred to as "James"), is a resident of the United States and of Gonzales, LA and is and was at all times relevant herein a resident of the parish of Ascension, State of Louisiana. All actions committed against the plaintiff were conducted in Gonzales, Louisiana.
2. The plaintiff, Gloria Million (hereinafter referred to as "Gloria"), is the spouse of James Million and a resident of the United States and of Gonzales, LA and is and was at all times relevant herein a resident of the parish of Ascension, State of Louisiana. All actions committed against the plaintiff were conducted in Gonzales, Louisiana.
3. The defendant, ABBVIE, INC, is a foreign corporation with Principal Place of Business Illinois.
4. The defendant, ABBOTT LABORATORIES, is a foreign corporation with Principal Place of Business in Illinois.
5. The defendant, ABBVIE PRODUCTS, LLC, is a foreign corporation with Principal Place of Business in Illinois and operates as subsidiary of Abbvie, Inc.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. Jurisdiction of this matter is based upon diversity of citizenship, 28 U.S.C. 1332, (a)(1), 28 U.S.C. 1332, (b)(1), the matter in controversy, exclusive of interest and cost, far exceed the sum of $75,000, and the matter has been designated as a multidistrict litigation case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1407.

3. Jurisdiction and venue are proper in that all acts and omissions, including plaintiff's (James Million) consumption of Androgel manufactured, supplied, and distributed by the defendants complained of herein occurred in the Gonzales, State of Louisiana.
4. Said defendants are justly and truly indebted to petitioners, James Million and Gloria Million.

FACTULA ALLEGATIONS

5. Upon information and belief Androgel is a pharmaceutical drug designed, developed, researched, manufactured, tested, promoted, advertised, marketed, sold, and/or distributed by the defendants.
6. Androgel is used for testosterone replacement.
7. Sometime between 2008 and 2010, plaintiff, James was prescribed Androgel and began using it as instructed by his doctor and he continued using Androgel for several years.
8. In February of 2016, James was transported to the hospital by ambulance and admitted into the Intensive Care Unit. Subsequently, plaintiff, James was diagnosed with having severe life threatening Pulmonary Embolism's, which nearly became fatal.
9. Defendants falsely advertised Androgel as safe and effective treatment for testosterone replacement.
10. Defendants knew that wrongfully advertised Androgel as safe, although they knew of the long term side effects to consumers, including the plaintiff, James.
11. Defendants knew that Androgel was defective and likely to cause harmful side effects.
12. As a direct and proximate result of the defendants' actions, the plaintiffs were substantially injured and damaged

STATEMENT OF RELIEF

13. The foregoing paragraphs are re-alleged and incorporated by reference herein.

COUNT I
(Strict Liability- Design Defect)

14. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the following allegations.

15. The plaintiff's, James injuries were caused by the product, Androgel, which was manufactured, distributed, and sold and was in a defective condition and unreasonably dangerous when put to a reasonably anticipated use for reasons including but not limited to:

- a. There were inadequate instructions from defendants to plaintiff, James as to the potential risks of harm associated with the normal use of Androgel.
- b. Androgel was inherently and substantially dangerous.

16. As a direct and proximate result of the defendants' defective product, the plaintiffs were substantially injured and damaged.

17.
